BUDGET FRIENDLY OPTION

It is made out of roll form aluminum and can block up to 70% of light transmission. It is a great alternative to wood because of the longevity.

Lattice-style pergolas are the crown jewels of outdoor living spaces, captivating the senses with their timeless allure and unmatched versatility. These architectural gems masterfully interweave form and function, casting a harmonious tapestry of shade, style, and functionality.

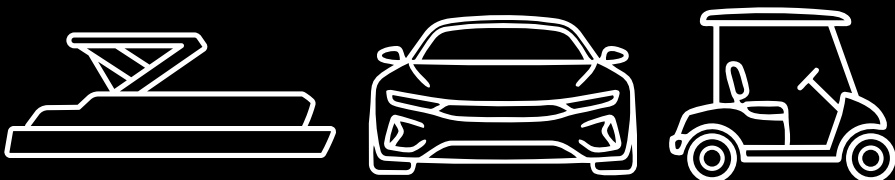

MAXIMIZE SPACE AND ENJOYMENT

Whether you are covering a classic car – aquatic vessel or are just looking for a shady space this has you covered.

This feature will allow you to enjoy your patio cover on the hottest days of the summer, as well as, the coolest days of the winter and everyday in between.

With a combination patio cover, you can virtually custom design your patio structure to meet your every need for a total outdoor living experience.

ADAPTIVE

With their intricate latticework and graceful lines, Elitewood Lattice style pergolas add a touch of sophistication to any outdoor setting, whether it's a cozy patio, a spacious deck, or a lush garden oasis.

INNOVATIVE

From a basic patio cover to custom designs, freestanding sitting areas to deck and patio covers. Whatever your vision may be, we can create the shade cover. Plus, added options such as special-order columns and beautifully contoured beams let you make a statement that is truly unique.

VERSATILE

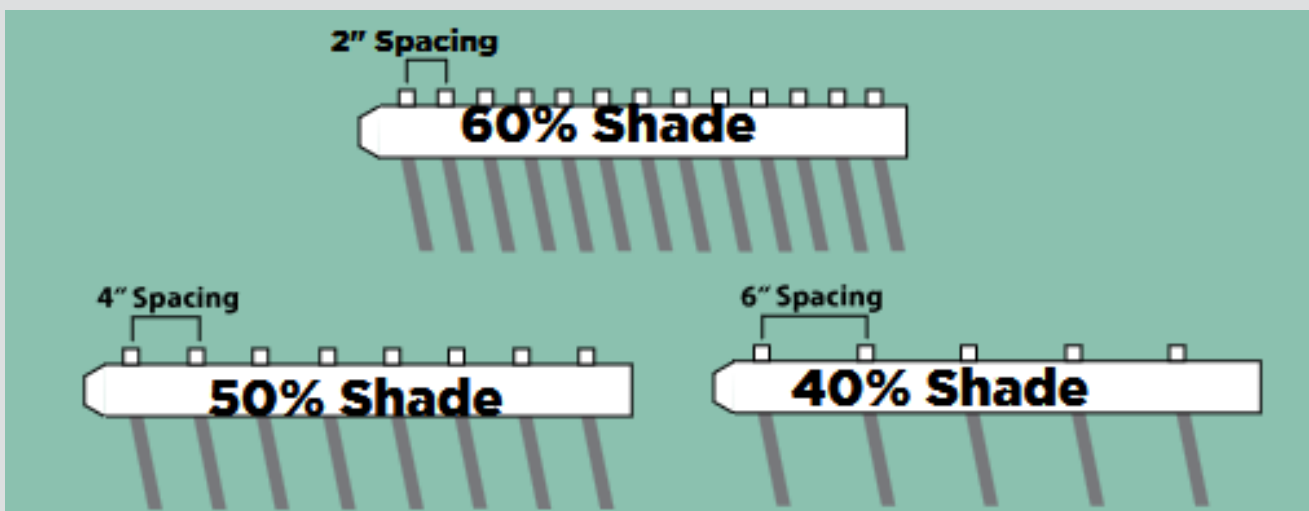

We offer a diverse collection of Elitewood lattice-style pergolas tailored to the discerning tastes of our clients throughout Northern California, inviting them to experience the epitome of open-air elegance. Our lattice-style pergolas elevate outdoor spaces. They are functional structures but also works of art that harmonize with the natural surroundings, creating an ambiance of tranquility and elegance.
